BROOKLYN, N.Y. – (October 11, 2017) – Viventium – a transformative, living, and purely cloud-based HCM solution that provides actionable insight into your business – today announced its collaboration with one of the most recognizable time and attendance solutions in the country, TimeClock Plus. TimeClock Plus effortlessly integrates into Viventium's HCM platform, creating a smooth and secure transition of data through payroll and other core HR functions. TimeClock Plus is a scalable and configurable workforce management solution that allows businesses to accurately and efficiently collect, manage, schedule, and process employee time and leave requests. Viventium is partnering with TimeClock Plus because the company truly believes in giving clients the remarkable software that they need to run their business. "For the SMB market, it is important for us to partner with someone who can address the complexities of mid-market needs with a design that keeps it simple," said Gary J. Trainor, Viventium CEO. "TimeClock Plus not only demonstrates superior expertise in the time and attendance arena but also considers the user experience, which aligns with our values at Viventium." Viventium's single sign-on capability with TimeClock Plus simplifies Viventium clients' experience by allowing effortless navigation to time and attendance functions. The integration eliminates the need to export or import time information separately – instead, time and attendance data will seamlessly and directly flow into Viventium's payroll within the HCM platform. Viventium clients can enjoy a true single-entry software experience. "We are excited to partner with Viventium," said Jordy Moorman, TimeClock Plus President. "We embrace and appreciate the company's vision to partner with experts in their respective areas. We know the Viventium UX/UI is recognized as one of the best in the HCM industry, and it pairs nicely with the contemporary look and feel of TimeClock Plus." Viventium selected TimeClock Plus for its ability to manage complex pay policies, rules and schedules while bringing efficiency, accuracy, and compliance to over 60,000 organizations. About Viventium Viventium Software Inc. is a transformative, living, and purely cloud-based HCM solution for business management that provides a remarkable user experience and design anyone can use with ease, unbeatable analytics, and insight into your business.
